Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III [X]

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission: First Nations Development Institute works to improve economic conditions for Native Americans through technical assistance and training, advocacy and policy, and direct financial grants.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? [] Yes [X] No

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? [] Yes [X] No

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 1,137,123. including grants of $ 484,113.) (Revenue $) Native American Foods and Health - First Nations' work in food systems is at the intersection between food systems/food security and economic development. First Nations supports tribes and Native communities as they strengthen food systems in their communities, improve health and nutrition and build food security. First Nations increases Native control over Native agriculture and food systems by providing financial and technical support, including training materials, to projects that address the agriculture and food sectors in Native communities.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 1,445,788. including grants of $ 581,400.) (Revenue $ 66,899.) Strengthening Native American Nonprofits - Through grant support, technical assistance and training, First Nations provides Native communities with the tools and resources necessary to create new community-based nonprofit organizations and to strengthen the capacity of existing nonprofits. For 33 years, First Nations has supported hundreds of model projects that revitalize Native communities while integrating social empowerment and economic strategies. An essential component of First Nations nonprofit capacity building strategy is the Leadership Entrepreneurial and Apprenticeship Development (LEAD) program that is identifying and training the next generation of Native nonprofit leaders.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 901,630. including grants of $ 175,000.) (Revenue $) Financial and Investor Education - First Nations Development Institute and its wholly-owned subsidiary, First Nations Oweesta Corporation (a Community Development Financial Institution), work in partnership with Native American tribes and communities throughout the US to assist them in designing and administering financial and investor education programs. The projects range from helping individuals and families understand the basics of financial management - opening and maintaining a bank account and using credit wisely - to helping individuals understand financial markets and a variety of financial instruments for borrowing and saving.

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O.) (Expenses $ 245,175. including grants of $ 14,995.) (Revenue $ 164,249.)

4e Total program service expenses 3,729,716.

Part X, Line 2:

Explanation: The Organization applies a more-likely-than-not measurement methodology to reflect the financial statement impact of uncertain tax positions. After evaluating the tax positions taken, none are considered to be uncertain; therefore, no amounts have been recognized as of June 30, 2014. If incurred, interest and penalties associated with tax positions are recorded in the period assessed as general and administrative expense.

No interest and penalties have been assessed as of June 30, 2014. Tax years that remain subject to examination include 2011 through the current period for the federal returns.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part I, Line 2:

Explanation: The grant-making department manages the solicitation, review and award of grants to applicant organizations. The grant-making department requires documentation of exempt or tribal government status, a budget and narrative of the grantee's proposal and other relevant information. A First Nations committee reviews applications for consistency with First Nations' program objectives and other factors.

Terms and conditions of each grant are documented and signed both by First Nations and the grantee. The terms and conditions require programmatic and financial reports from the grantee. The grant-making department monitors compliance with grant terms and conditions, including timely receipt of required reports. Normally grant funds are disbursed in multiple payments:

initial payment follows receipt of signed terms and conditions, and subsequent payments are held until required reports are received, often halfway through and at the end of the grant period.
